KOTA KINABALU: University College Sabah Foundation (UCSF) is offering scholarships worth RM3 million to the first 100 students in the B40 category who register for the July 2022 intake.

Its Acting Vice Chancellor Prof Dr Junaenah Sulehan said eligible students will receive sponsored tuition and hostel fees, as well as allowances.

She said UCSF will hold open interview sessions for the July and September intakes at selected locations for SPM and STPM graduates who wish to further their studies.

“The UCSF Corporate Communications and Marketing team will be in several locations throughout Sabah to conduct the interview sessions,” she said.

It will kick off at MB Hotel Tawau on June 14, followed by Sipadan Hall, Semporna District Council on June 16, Harbor Mall Sandakan (June 18-19), Kota Marudu Community Hall (June 21), Pisompuruan Square Tambunan (June 23), Keningau SME Hall (June 25), Pa ‘Musa Beaufort Hall (June 28) and UCSF Sembulan (June 30).

“All sessions start from 9am to 3pm except in Kota Kinabalu (UCSF campus in Sembulan), which is scheduled to start from 9am to 4pm,” she said in a statement, Wednesday.

UCSF offers diploma and bachelor’s degree programmes recognised by the Malaysian Qualifications Agency (MQA).

Among the diploma programmes offered are in the fields of Hospitality Management, Tourism Management, Accounting, Business Management, Media Studies, Animation, Screen Art, as well as Visual Arts and Design.

UCSF also offers undergraduate degree programmes, including Hospitality and Tourism Management, Sustainable Resource Management and Conservation, Development Studies with Media Communications, Business Administration and Accounting.
